Principals' Report
December 16, 2004

- ❖ The 6th grade and Jr. High Band Winter Concert was held on December 6th in the auditorium, the K-5th grade Winter Program was held on December 10th in the big gym, and the Pre-school Winter Program, was held on December 13th in auditorium. All of these programs were strongly supported by parents and the community. Thanks to all the people whose hard work and extra efforts make these programs a success each year. Special thanks to Jeanne Duhan and Susan Carlile.
- ❖ Today the 3rd and 4th grade classes at Eagle's View performed, "The Best Christmas Pageant Ever" to a packed audience of students, parents, teachers, staff, and community members. Well done to all who participated, and "thank you" Ms. O'Malley, Ms. Nielsen, and Ms. Downs for their extra time and effort with the kids in preparation for this event.
- ❖ The second annual food drive has ended with the students collecting over 1,125 canned goods. By meeting their goal, the students earned a hot dog and popcorn party. The food will be distributed locally through USAFV. Thanks to Ms. Nielsen for coordinating this event.
- ❖ The Raiders' volleyball team completed their season at the Great Alaska Conference tournament in Bethel on December 3-4. The team made steady improvements during the season and finished the tournament with a 1 – 2 win/loss record.
- ❖ The Raiders' wrestling team competed in the Great Alaska Conference tournament in Dillingham on December 3-4. The team made a strong showing with Jesse Kueber and Cory Merrifield advancing to the state meet in Seward. Jesse place 4th overall at the state championships.
- ❖ The Raiders' basketball teams have begun practice and will face their first competition this weekend with the boys hosting King Cove and Sand Point, and the Raiders' girls traveling to King Cove.
- ❖ Students of the Week selected since the last school board meeting are: Jana Lekanoff, Brian Morales, Camille Docena, and Allison Martin.
- ❖ As we enter the winter break, we would like to wish "Happy Holidays" to parents, staff, students, the Unalaska Board of Education, and the entire community.
